

Pullman Bangkok King Power Hosts The MICE Open House Experience to Showcase Newly Renovated Spaces

Bangkok, Thailand – Pullman Bangkok King Power proudly welcomed distinguished guests and partners to its MICE Open House Experience, celebrating the unveiling of the hotel's fully reimagined second-floor meeting and event spaces, alongside the refreshed Premier Deluxe guestrooms. Together, these renovations mark an exciting new chapter in the hotel's journey to inspire innovation, connection, and memorable experiences for both business and leisure travelers.

The evening commenced with a welcome address by Mr. Ulhas Shetty, General Manager of Pullman Bangkok King Power, who highlighted the hotel's bold renovation journey and its commitment to maintaining a strong position as a leading MICE hub in Bangkok and the ASEAN region. He emphasized the hotel's dedication to excellence, sustainability, and innovation, emphasizing that the transformation of the second floor represents a bold step forward in strengthening the hotel's capacity to host world-class events.

Guests also heard from Mr. Marc Begassat, Managing Director of King Power Mahanakhon, who reinforced the significance of the hotel as a key member of the King Power Group. He shared the Group's vision of making Pullman Bangkok King Power a must-visit destination for travelers and event planners, seamlessly connected with King Power Mahanakhon, a landmark venue designed to host MICE activities, team-building programs, and incentive groups.

The event showcased Pullman's versatility through a range of engaging experiences, including:

- Exploring the newly refurbished MICE venues and themed coffee breaks designed to elevate events.
- Crafting signature drinks at the DIY Cocktail Bar with the hotel's mixologist.
- Enjoying food & beverage highlights and a spa retreat by Le Spa.
- Meeting the King Power Mahanakhon team, presenting facilities for MICE, team building, and incentive groups.
- Experiencing the Aksara Puppet Theatre troupe, a performance that beautifully preserves the richness of Thai culture.
- Creating personal keepsakes at the 'Plant Your Own Mini Garden' workshop.
- Learning from Escaplan.com, experts in MICE workshops.
- Joining wellness workshops with Café Goer Studio, including candle decoration, room sprays, and perfume sachets.

The evening concluded with a celebratory champagne toast led by Mr. Ulhas Shetty, General Manager of Pullman Bangkok King Power, Mr. Marc Begassat, Managing Director of King Power Mahanakhon, Mrs. Alice Jenkins, Senior Director of Brand Management and Marketing, MEA APAC, ACCOR and Khun Prapaphan Sungmuang, General Manager of Thailand Incentive and Convention Association (TICA). The toast was followed by a cultural showcase from the Aksara Puppet Theatre Troupe, highlighting the elegance of traditional Thai puppetry.

This special evening not only marked the beginning of a new chapter for Pullman Bangkok King Power, but also reaffirmed its commitment to delivering world-class hospitality, innovative MICE solutions, and unforgettable experiences.
