The Hidden Charm of the East

Tawa Ravadee Resort, a unique and distinct property set in 19 hectares of land (120 rai) situated in the beautiful agricultural province of Prachinburi. The resort is surrounded by mature tropical vegetation, large lake, tranquil lotus ponds, abundant open spaces providing seclusion, peace and relaxation, fresh air and perfect setting for any occasion year round. Whether a weekend getaway, hosting meetings, events, weddings, conferences or team building activities, we provide traditional Thai hospitality creating memorable moments.

The resort was inspired by ancient Dvaravati architecture which thrived in this eastern area of Thailand between the 4th and 11th centuries. Our name "Tawa Ravadee" originates from the Dvaravati culture meaning "gateway". The resort is a gateway to Khao Yai, Thap Lan, and Pang Sida National Parks, which are located 40 minutes away from the resort or your stop over to and from Siam Reap Cambodia. The resort is easily accessible from Bangkok and is only 1.5 hours. from Suvarnabumi International Airport. This blending of culture, heritage, history and Thai hospitality makes every stay meaningful.
